School News

As per the USDA all schools must have a Meal Charge Policy in effect. The following is a portion of the new policy:

Students have use of a meal account. When the balance reaches $0.00, a student may charge no more than $15.00 to this account. When an account reaches this limit, a student will not be allowed to charge a la carte items until the negative account balance is paid.

The rest of the policy can be viewed in the student handbooks for each building and on the district website:

www.centraldecatur.org, under the school nutrition tab, monthly menus can also be found there.
