The Jungle Book

Play In A Day

3.29.25

1st-7th Grade

$55

Explore the jungle with Mowgli while learning about empathy, acceptance, and inner strength. Students will learn how to create full characters, go through the entire audition process, stretch communication abilities through hands-on activities, better understand personal strengths, and identify new ways to express their artistic voice during this six hour class hosted at the Shaw Family Auditorium on Graceland University's campus in Lamoni. The class runs Saturday, March 29th from 9am to 3pm and culminates with a free once-in-a-lifetime performance of "The Jungle Book" for friends and family at 3pm on March 29th!
